David Tristram

Nominated as one of Creative Black Country's prestigious 100 Masters, David Tristram is one of the UK's most popular and performed comedy playwrights. On average, one of his 29 published comedies is being performed somewhere in the world every single day. His work has been translated into many languages, including professional productions in South Africa, Mexico, Turkey, Italy, Germany, The Netherlands, France, Australia, Greece and Malaysia.

He's also written a comedy novel, A Bolt from the Blue, and a musical, Sex, Drugs & Rick and Noel.

For the past six years he's been the writer and producer behind the Black Country comedy character 'Doreen,' who, following a viral video on YouTube, went on to produce five sell-out one-woman shows, three books (including an autobiography and a children's book), and a full-length movie (featuring a cameo from Led Zeppelin rock legend Robert Plant). Doreen was voted Midlands Entertainment Personality of the Year by What's On readers, despite being shortlisted against world-famous stars such as Lenny Henry, Dame Julie Walters and Beverley Knight.

David has also successfully collaborated over the past four years with Qdos - the world's biggest panto company - to write Doreen's character parts, resulting in her winning Best Newcomer at the Great British Panto Awards, and last year starring Michael Harrison's production of Snow White at the Birmingham Hippodrome, which also went on to win Best Pantomime.

Wheatsheaf Players

The Wheatsheaf Players were established in 1930, in Coventry. Since then we have produced hundreds of plays.

We aim to produce the highest standard of performance, and we cover a wide range of shows from classics, contemporary and drama to comedy, farce, and thrillers. We also produce our own original plays and adaptations from time to time too!

The Wheatsheaf Players are a passionate and friendly group who thrive on new creative ideas, and we are constantly challenging ourselves.

We have an excellent youth group for under eighteens, who receive training and experience from those who have a passion for the performing arts.

The Wheatsheaf Players strength grows from new members. If you would like to try your hand at acting, or help out behind the scenes, then we would like to hear from you. Become a member, for just £10 a year. Come and be part of the team!

We rehearse every Tuesday and Wednesday at 7.30pm at The Radford Social Club. If you have an interest in being a member of The Wheatsheaf Players, do not hesitate to email us at info@wheatsheafplayers.co.uk
